WHAT WE DO FOR YOU

The CLSA was established in 1990 to give voice to the silent majority of criminal lawyers. We represent criminal practitioners throughout England and Wales and maintain members Agency and Courts List for easy reference.

Representing your interests involves:

Consulting with the Legal Services Commission, Law Society, Government, Courts and Police on any matter where you might be affected.

Lobbying politicians and media by attending the meetings, conferences and functions where they will listen - that you could not find the time to attend.

Supplying the latest developments in legislation and professional development to keep you advised of regional and national issues that affect you.

An authoritative body of opinion from the real world of criminal practice.

We are the only national body representing solely the interests of CRIMINAL solicitors in England & Wales.

ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

Associate Membership of the Association is open to any person in the permanent employment of a firm of solicitors and engaged in or interested in the practice of criminal law. Applicants must be proposed and seconded by at least two full members of the Association.
