New Criminal Law Titles from SWEET & MAXWELL

Archbold: Criminal Pleading, Evidence and Practice 2021

General Editor: His Honour Judge Mark Lucraft, QC and an expert team of contributors

In advance of the Sentencing Code coming into force on December 1, 2020, the 2021 edition of Archbold includes a separate special supplement with a fully revised version of Chapter 5A on Sentences & Orders on Conviction. This new version of Chapter 5A reproduces all the relevant material and explains in detail how previous decisions apply to the new law. The pre-Sentencing Code version of Chapter 5A is published in the Main Work. In addition, further Archbold chapters have been revised and restructured for the 2021 edition and new expert authors recruited to join the team. Archbold is back and better than ever. It's the same tried, tested and trusted content and it's as up to date and authoritative as ever. What's more, it's available at the same price as last year.

Thomas' Sentencing Referencer 2021

Lyndon Harris

The new Sentencing Act 2020 brings about the most significant change in sentencing legislation for over a decade and will apply to all offenders convicted on or after the commencement date. The 2021 edition has been completely revised to provide clear and concise guidance on the operation of the new Sentencing Code and the effects of the 'clean sweep'. Additionally, the applicability of existing case law to the new Sentencing Code provisions will depend on the changes made by the Sentencing Code - Thomas' Sentencing Referencer provides authoritative guidance on these points and more.
